Improving access to General Practice

Fair Processing Notice: How South Worcestershire GP Services accesses and uses your data

South Worcestershire GP Services is piloting a new range of services with your GP surgery that aims to extend access to clinical advice and support to patients. If you choose to use these services the health care professional will ask for your explicit consent to access your GP Health Record on every occasion.

If you provide consent we will view your GP health record through a secure computer system. Any notes and reports of the contact we have with you will be recorded on this system.

This is known as data sharing. This helps us to provide:

- More effective joint working across primary care with more information available, and
- Care that is as safe and effective as possible.

You have the right to confidentiality under the Data Protection Act 1998, the Human Rights Act 1998 and the common law duty of confidentiality (the Disability Discrimination and the Race Relations Acts may also apply).

You also have the right to ask for a copy of all records about you (you may have to pay a fee).

Everyone working for the NHS has a legal duty to keep information about you confidential. We have a duty to:

- Maintain full and accurate records of the care we provide to you,
- Keep records about you confidential, secure and accurate, and
- Provide information in a format that is accessible to you (i.e., in large type if you are partially sighted)

Information and data is only shared on a need to know basis and using as little information as possible. You will always have the right to opt out of any data sharing initiatives.

Your personal data will not be used for any sales or marketing purposes.

We will not pass your information onto third parties unless we have your consent, are required by law, or we have special permission because the interests of the public are thought to be of greater importance than your confidentiality. These situations are very uncommon.
